Sir Herbert Ames,

Dear Sir Herbert:

I have made inquiries about any possible opening for Commander Coote, but our positions are all filled, and I have therefore sent your letter with the testimonials to President Tory.

Our Physical Director, who has looked through the testimonials and who also knows something of Commander Coote himself, is of opinion that his work would be somewhat more suited to Australia than to Canada, as the Australians are more like the British in their work and play. Also, if he were to come to Canada he would have a better field in the Militia or Navy Departments than in Universities. There may, however, be some opening in the West.

Yours sincerely,

President.
